1.) impuls . Festival 2023looking back...

We are happily looking back on the 8th edition of the impuls Festival of Contemporary Music. Over a period of 12 days (23.7.-3.8.2023) 31 concert dates, partly holding multi-hour concert programs, were offered and so were more than 25 discourse programs (lectures, discussions, composers' talks, ...). Altogether 180 works of the 20th and 21st century were presented, amongst them 52 world premieres, 9 impuls commissions and another 11 Austrian premieres, aside from additionally 16 improvisations, turntable performances and in-situ-interventions. Most renowned formations such as Quatuor Diotima, Klangforum Wien and Cantando Admont as well as Decoder Ensemble and hand werk met younger ensembles such as Kollektiv Unruhe, Ex-Sentia Ensemble, zone expérimentale basel and VanProject to name a few, and during the first three festival days a focus was put also on Austrian formations with ensembles such as Schallfeld, airborne extended, between feathers ensemble and strings&noise amongst others.

2.) impuls . Academy 2023looking back...

Once more the impuls Festival came along with the now 13th edition of the international impuls Ensemble and Composers Academy. Altogether 214 young artists from 50 nations and 5 continents (approximately a third being hereby female also amongst the composition participants) followed the manifolded Academy offers (with amongst others over 30 Special Programs) for composers, vocalists, ensembles and other creative artists, and met up with more than 60 international coaches and further Festival artists. Graz and the Styria once more hereby developed into an internationally recognized platform and center for contemporary music and the arts.
